

Please join

U.S. Attorney Joyce White Vance,

U.S. Assistant Attorney General Ignacia Moreno,

Environmental Protection Agency Regional Administrator Gwendolyn Keyes Fleming,

and

FBI Special Agent in Charge Patrick J. Maley

in a listening session on environmental issues, especially affecting the Black Warrior River basin.

The session will be:

Wednesday, July 20, 2011

10 a.m.

at the

East Ensley Branch, Birmingham Public Library 900 14th Street, Ensley

Moreno, who leads the U.S. Department of Justice Environmental and Natural Resources Division, is joining Vance, Fleming and Maley to explore environmental justice issues in the community, including environmental challenges and enforcement of environmental laws.

To get to the library, take I-59/20 Exit 120 onto 20th St Ensley. Turn right at Avenue I and go 6 blocks to 14th Street. The library is on the corner.

For more information, contact: Peggy Sanford, 205-244-2020 or peggy.sanford@usdoj.gov.